

Leader Expectations

These are short and summarized expectations, qualities, and duties of those who are to lead a life group:

- ❖ Actively be a member of Integrity Church and living a Christ-honoring life.
- ❖ Attend church on a weekly basis.
- ❖ Have a desire to lead others and seek to create close bonds with those in the church.
- ❖ Maintain confidentiality within the group unless exceptions are present in which case the Life Group Director must be contacted.
- ❖ Maintain peace and order during the group if discourse among attenders occurs.
- ❖ Can commit to running a group between the allotted months.
- ❖ Uphold the values and beliefs of the church in group discussion.
- ❖ Are okay with not knowing everything or having an answer for every question.
- ❖ Are comfortable with learning new things and growing in teaching ability.
- ❖ Create a comfortable atmosphere for attenders of the group to speak openly and freely.
- ❖ Offer support to attenders in the group and actively push others to grow in their relationship with Christ.
- ❖ Are open to seeking counsel if there is a situation they are unsure of how to deal with.
- ❖ Enjoy cultivating meaningful interactions with the ability to spot future leaders.
