

1. Helping your little brother with a puzzle
2. Playing with your toys instead of cleaning your room like your mom told you to
3. Inviting a friend over to play when you know things have been tough for him at home
4. Pushing your little sister's swing even though you'd rather be swinging yourself
5. Playing a one-player video game by yourself in the living room while your cousins play a game together at the kitchen table
6. Asking your sister if she wants to play outside when she's sad that she didn't get invited to a party
7. Helping your dad do yard work on a Saturday afternoon
8. Sneaking your tablet into your bed and staying up super late playing on it
9. Taking cookies to the older lady next door and talking with her while you eat some with her
10. Telling your friends you'd rather practice diving at the pool than play a game with them
