What to Do:

Print this page and the next page, front to back. Make enough for each kid to have one postcard.

The image shows a worksheet template for creating postcards. It consists of two large, identical rectangular boxes arranged vertically. Each box is defined by a solid black border and is surrounded by a dashed line, indicating where to cut. The boxes are currently empty, intended for children to draw or write on.

What to Do:

Print this page and the previous page, front to back. Make enough for each kid to have one postcard.
