Your family is on the way to see a movie you waited for months to see when your little brother or sister gets sick in the backseat and you have to head home instead.

Recess is cancelled because a few kids in your class were misbehaving. Instead, you have to sit quietly and read books.

You have a Saturday morning full of chores before going to a friend's birthday party.

Instead of going to the park, you get dragged to your parents' friends' house where they talk FOREVER about really boring stuff.

Someone you love is sick and you're going to visit them in the hospital.

Your friend gets the toy you've wanted for ages and offers to let you play with it sometimes.

Your teacher assigns extra homework on the day of your big game.

No one saved you a seat at lunch and you're sitting alone.

Your mom gave your sibling your leftover tacos for lunch.

You hoped to go away for vacation but you're staying home all summer long.

The power went out just before your birthday party!

You feel discouraged about a big test.

What to Do:

Print on paper and cut apart. Provide one set for each small group.
